Dedication

Mrs. Sullivan is the one person at Loyola Academy whose position carries with it responsibility for EVERY student in the school. As each student progresses through his four years here, he grows increasingly aware of her dedication, her purposefulness, her understanding, her unceasing efforts in his behalf, and her personal warmth and charm. Although her work goes on throughout the twelve months of the year, she seems to renew her boundless energy through the very challenge of her task. She is loving and devoted and tireless and refined. With deep gratitude and affection we dedicate the 1975 yearbook to Mrs. Mildred D. Sullivan.

In Appreciation

HOMO SUM; HUMANI NIL A ME ALIENUM PUTO. (I am a man, and nothing human is foreign to me.)

-- Terence

The gentle lovingkindness that IS Father Paul Clifford has, in the years he has been among us at Loyola Academy, kindled the flame of love and brotherly understanding in the hearts of countless students. His life is an example of the true meaning of the Christian gentleman: in quiet dedication he loves and honors God by loving and honoring us, making us aware of the latent fire within us that renders us more than "a handful of dust."

-- The Loyola Community

Fifty Years

Three Hundred and One Years of Service

This September five members of the Jesuit faculty at Loyola Academy will celebrate their fiftieth year in the Society of Jesus.

Following the dictate of Scripture, "Make Holy the Fiftieth Year," these five Jesuits will have a Mass of Thanksgiving and a reception on September the sixth for the Jesuits of Chicagoland. Later in September or October, another celebration will be held for their many friends. This will include a Mass and reception.

A brief word about each of the Jubilarians:

Rev. Paul C. Joehl, S. J., spent most of his Jesuit life as a missionary in India. He is now an assistant at St. Patrick's Church in Wadsworth, Illinois.

Rev. Gerasime M. Legris, S. J., spent the last thirty-five years at Loyola Academy, at Lake Shore and in Wilmette. He has been active with the Fathers Club, the Alumni Association and in teaching French.

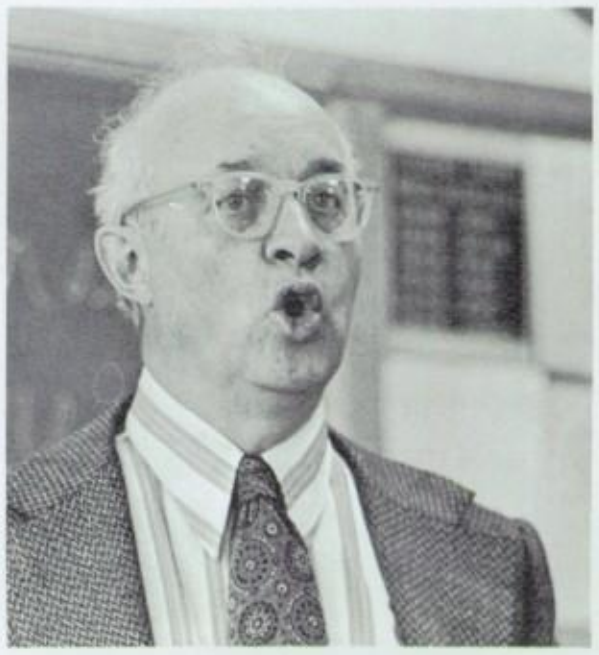
Rev. Richard T. Malloy, S. J., came to Loyola Academy five years ago after many years in administrative work. Here he has taught Latin and he is at present a full-time counselor.

Rev. Ara F. Walker, S.J., came to Loyola two years ago as an assistant to Rev. Robert Humbert, S. J., the Alumni Moderator. He has also been in administrative work. Many of the alumni remember Fr. Walker as a teaching scholastic and later as principal on Lake Shore.

Rev. Edward T. Wiatrak, S. J., came to Loyola Academy fifteen years ago. He has taught here for many years.

Last year, Rev Ignatius M. Burrill, S. J., celebrated his fiftieth anniversary in the Society of Jesus. Since this fact was not mentioned in the '74 yearbook, we would like to honor here his fifty-one years of devoted retreat work and teaching.

AD MULTOS ANNOS



Fr. Ignatius M. Burrill, S. J., a Jesuit for fifty-one years

Celebrating their fifty years as Jesuits are, seated, from left to right: Fr. Joehl, S. J.; Fr. Wiatrak, S. J.; and Fr. Legris, S. J. Standing: Fr. Walker, S. J., and Fr. Malloy, S. J.

Dave Finzer

The 1975 baseball season was disappointing in terms of the team's record, 6-12. The Ramblers, however, did have their first taste of state competition, and the experience will be helpful to future teams.

The graduating seniors will be hard to replace, supplying as they did the majority of punch to the line-up and steadiness to the defense. Seniors on the team were Mark Fahrenbach, (left field), Billy O'Donnell (centerfielder and lead off man), Chris Kendall, Bill (Arnie) Palmer (outfield), and Bill O'Connor (catcher). O'Donnell, Kendall, and Palmer were co-captains, with Bob Cooper serving as manager. This year's juniors were pitchers Rick Lisa and Jim Strickland, first basemen Paul Clower and John Scholtes, infielder Steve Vandenbranden, and outfielder Mike Ouska. Sophomores were infielders Joe Davies, Fletcher Jenkins, Larry McCarthy, pitchers Dave Finzer and Mike Mitchell, and outfielder Jim Maher. Chris Faggi, a pitcher, was the lone freshman on the team.

The frosh-soph team also had a hot and cold season. They compiled a 4 and 6 record, which included a four-game winning streak. Rookie coach, Mr. Deevy, handled the team this year.

Since too often teams are criticized for what they failed to do, it seems only proper to describe this year's varsity basketball team by outlining their accomplishments. Although the Ramblers opened the season with only one returning starter, Mark Feiereisel, they posted an enviable 7-4 Catholic League record, which was just one game away from last year's record with three experienced players.

Aside from playing in a toughly balanced Catholic League, Loyola's players were impressive against area powers as well. Although tournament records were not strong, play certainly was, since the Ramblers took top-ranked Evanston, Joliet Central, Urbana, and New Trier East to the wire in two overtimes and one loss at the buzzer.

Seniors Ray Carney, Tom Morrison, Ed Condon, Rich Wehman, Scott Feiereisel, and Joe Morrison contributed not only to the team's on-the-court success, but developed a spirit that will be difficult to duplicate in future years. Joining Scott Feiereisel, Condon, and Joe Morrison on the starting team were juniors Mark Daniel and Mark Feiereisel. Next year's squad can look forward to their return as well as that of Roy Brandys.

Final team record was 15-11 with fourth place in the Catholic League.

Mark VanCalbergh displays his form

To quote a popular television saying, the 1975 Varsity Bowling Team experienced both the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat. The Varsity Team finished third in their division while the JV's finished a poor fourth. Although we did hold a 32-31 record, most of our losses were close ones, those being the hardest to take.

The starting six on Varsity were Fred Metzger, Frank Moschiano, Rick Nierzwicki, Bob Tatara, Jerry Hicks, and Dan Stralka. The substitutes were Mike Aufmann, Chris Perille, Joe Donnelly, and John Underriner. The JV's relied on Ron Nierzwicki, Mark VanCalbergh, Cliff Haggenjos, Jeff Ziegler, Chris Marcyzn, and John Haggenjos. Joe Lamendello was the alternate.

Our season came to a glorious end when the team placed third (out of 12 teams) in the Chicago Catholic League All-Star Games. Bob Tatara lead the team that day with a 597 series. Individual honors also went to Fred Metzger, Frank Moschiano, and Chris Marcyan.

Intramural Bowling once again proved enjoyable with Fr. Dwyer scurrying about maintaining order on the lanes. Over sixty students participated in the weekly activity. While Bowling is not a sanctioned sport in the Catholic League, one can be sure that it is taken seriously by its members, just as if it were a sanctioned athletic activity.

In second place is Sophomore Mark Bowman

The Loyola Academy cross country team, though severely hurt by the loss of graduating seniors and transfers, still managed to produce excellence in competition over a three-mile course. One of the most prominent meets was the Downers Grove Invitational, in which Loyola placed second. Senior co-captain, Pete McGivern, a leader throughout the year, won that race in a course record.

With only a few seniors on this year's team and with numerous good underclassmen returning next year, Loyola's outlook for next year is good. Juniors Bob Connolly, Tom Sanders, and Dennis Clohisy can all be expected to lead the varsity, which will include sophomore standouts, Bill Hoffman and Vic Conrad.

Loyola's football team had a 2-6 record. The fan support was enthusiastic, the cheerleaders gave their best efforts, and the band marched with us all the way. A losing season has brought forth the Loyola Spirit in full view.

The team lived by the motto "never say die." This was truly reflected in the seniors on the team: Pat Hansen, Ralph Gesualdo, Bill O'Donnell, John Pont, Mike Walsh, Hobie Murnane, Sam Betar, Mike Stemo, Andy Voorhees, Dan Seeberg, Mark Ramirez, Joe Donlin, Quinn Regan, and Andy Annes.

Looking ahead toward next season, Loyola has excellent possibilities. There are 19 lettermen returning to provide a fine nucleus for a good team next season. A big job for the coaches will be to find 3 tackles to replace graduating seniors Pat Hansen, Ralph Gesualdo, Joe Donlin, and Hobie Murnane. Captains Mike Murnane, Mark Devito, and Gary Huber have the duty to bring Loyola back up to the top.

The 1974-75 Golf Season at Loyola can be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in years. This is due primarily to hard work and the dedication by the team members and Coach Jim Jackimiec.

This was not expected to be one of the most prosperous years, but rather a rebuilding year since the team consisted of mostly Juniors. The Varsity and the Junior Varsity responded, however, by winning Catholic League Championships.

Both teams posted identical 4-3 records in dual meets. This however was not totally indicative of the fine play that was turned in at each level.

Bill Daddona, Jim Schumacher, and Joe Karlovich led the Varsity to its great season. Bill Daddono was also medalist in the Catholic League Tournament. John Mannebach and Reini Hoerner contributed greatly to the overall success of the Junior Varsity.

Hope springs eternal for the upcoming squad as there are many Juniors returning and many fine Sophomore moving up to the Varsity level.

Many thanks go to Coach Jackimiec and many others for making this season a truly outstanding one.

The Loyola Hockey Ramblers finished the season with only 12 varsity players. The loss of Paul Freyder due to injury early in the season hurt the team. Much of the success the team had resulted from the time, effort, and concern of Head Coach Jack O'Grady. Through his planning the Ramblers played in two leagues, the Catholic and Metro North, for a total of 75 games. Coach Jerry Dunne gave invaluable help to the team with his excellent instruction and advice. The team finished fifth in the Catholic League and eighth in the Metro.

The second Loyola Academy Thanksgiving Invitational Tournament was played with outstanding success. Sixteen teams participated including two from Canada. The Loyola team also travelled into Canada for exhibition games, the first time a Chicago high school has done this.

Loyola's varsity soccer team, led by Jack Knight for the second year and assisted by Les Sendy, got off to a slow start this past season, partly because for the first time, the team played against long established IHSA teams, such as New Trier and Niles. As the season progressed, the soccer team began to pick up momentum by first beating Maine East and then numerous Catholic League schools. The final record was 6-11, with a fourth-place finish in the Catholic League.

The outlook for next year is more promising, even though the team will miss the leadership and play of captains Hans Schlecht and Pete McHugh (M.V.P.) Next year's team also has some very promising players who will be seniors. Among them are Jim Hamilton, Nick Lavezzorio, and Tom O'Malley.

The swimming team finished with seven wins and two losses, the defeats coming from powerhouses, Fenwick and Evanston. The Ramblers swim team was the only Loyola team to win their district meet, beating Glenbrook South by 18 points. Coach Townsend can feel justifiable pride in his team: seniors Julio Garcia, Mike Scotese, Gregg Merci, Frank Fiduccia, and Ed Brufke; juniors Larry Nora and John Baker; sophomores John Nicolau and Chip Boedicker; and freshman Lou Schmalzer. All of these men were state-meet qualifiers.

The junior varsity team finished with a 7-2 record, also losing to Evanston and Fenwick. Excellent performances came from sophomores John Mitchell, Steve Morrill, Matt Nora; and freshmen Ray Wieser, Joe La Joie, Herb Gresens, Steve Baas, and Lou Schmalzer. Schmalzer, who is expected to be the powerhouse of the varsity next year, took two first places at the Hinsdale Central Swim Meet, which is comparable to the state meet for freshmen.

For the first time in twelve years, it looked as if Loyola would lose its tennis crown. Having lost two games already to Fenwick in regular season play, Loyola was down to one remaining championship game to regain its glory. Play began. Ed Cruzat won # 1 singles. Kent Smith won # 2 singles. Joe Berry won # 3 singles. Ken Galie won # 4 singles. Mark Couzin won # 5 singles. Dan Williams and Bill Phelan lost # 1 doubles. Harold Sullivan and Doug Cleary won # 2 doubles. Loyola for the twelfth consecutive year had won the Catholic League Championship.

In the spring season Loyola won all league matches. We were not as successful with the suburban teams, but they did afford good practice matches for the players. Next year we will lose only Ken Galie. Other players who did very well during the regular season were John Jung, Bob Cucuel, Bob Reynolds, Reid Tatge, Steve Leaven, and Dan Pritchard. Three outstanding players who came out for the fall season were Bo Kemper, John Grab and Martin Flanagan. There were many other promising players during the year which means a bright future for tennis at Loyola.

Loyola presented a good but young team on opposing tracks this year, and in every case the accomplishments are indeed praiseworthy. The team's outdoor dual meet record was stretched to 59 before a disappointing defeat at Glenbrook North, but with so many underclassmen returning next year, a new victory streak may be anticipated.

In the Catholic League Loyola had three champions: Barry Sullivan in the mile, Chris Brennan in the 330-yard low hurdles, and Hobie Murnane in the discus. These men, along with the rest of the varsity, pitched in for a third-place finish in the league championship.

In IHSA competition, Loyola sent three representatives to the State meet in Charleston: Barry Sullivan in the 880-yard run, Chris Brennan in the low hurdles, and Jim Mackey in the long jump.

One of the world's fastest, most exciting, and most grueling sports is water polo. The Loyola Academy Water Polo Team, under the excellent coaching of the nationally respected Phil Stelnicki, posted one of the most impressive records in I.H.S.A. competition.

This year's team had trouble finding goalies, especially in the deep end. This problem plus the fact that the team had only a short time in practice together hurt the player's drive to educate their opponents in defeat. This was borne out by the Aqua-Jocks' five defeats by one goal including two losses to Oak Park. They also lost two games by two goals including one to Fenwick (which is the closest a team came to defeating the Friars this year).

After taking fourth in the Mt. Carmel tournament, the team made a comeback. The Ramblers finished third in the Catholic League, first in their district, and fifth in state.

Next year's team should do well. They will have two experienced goalies and many fine field players including Larry Nora, Glenn Furth, John Baker and Chip Burczak. They will, however, lose many fine seniors including Tom Friel and Frank Fiduccia who were the top two scorers winning All-Catholic League, All-State and All-American honors as well as Coaches Award and M.V.P. respectively.

FOUL!

The 1974-75 Wrestling team had its good times and bad, wins and losses, and ups and downs for everyone, but the season turned out to be a good one under Mr. Jim Giovannetti in his second year as head coach. Mr. Giovannetti was assisted by Mr. Charles Rossetti.

The Varsity team was led to its victories by top scorers Don Butzen, Mike Conti, Frosh-Soph MVP Dominic Venturi, Varsity MVP Ted Ritsos, and most improved wrestler Joe Battaglia.

As a whole the Varsity and Frosh-Soph teams chalked up sixth place in the Catholic League, the Varsity finished at eighth place in the I.H.S.A. Districts.

Before the first week of school had passed, intramurals were already in progress. The intramural committee, with the help of the coaching staff, installed two volleyball courts, three archery lanes, a tether ball set, and canoeing at the Skokie Lagoons.

When the weather turned a little cold, we moved inside for basketball. The toughest competition seemed to be between the seniors and juniors. After many upsets in first place the juniors beat the seniors during the Senior-Junior Championship for the second year in a row.

Special thanks go to all the referees for each game and especially to Coach Erlenbaugh and the entire coaching staff for their unending help.

A "bandstand" view

The Rambler Marching Band takes the field

1974-75 marked the tenth birthday of Loyola's band. During the fall the marching band delivered several excellent halftime shows for the football games, while the jazz band prepared for the second annual presentation of THE PRINCE OF PEACE.

Among the surprises in the winter Pops Concert was Father Reinke's performance of his own composition on the piano. The Pops Concert, the biggest yet, played to a sellout crowd. The jazz band participated in both the Pops Concert and the Talent Revue.

In spring the concert band played in contests against other local bands including that of Notre Dame High School. Loyola won a superior rating of nine. The band also sent a tape to a national contest. The jazz band became a musical comedy orchestra for THE MAN OF LA MANCHA. The concert band presented its spring concert, and the marching band was a participant in the St. Patrick's Day parade.

There is good prospect for an even more successful band next year, since the departing seniors are only nine in number: Joe Donnelly, Andy Fahrenbach, Steve Hardy, Steve Horn, Frank Moschiano, Paul Nuccio, Dave Sheahen, Bill Sliwa, and Jim Spector.

The Bicycle Club had another fine and successful year both planning and conducting excursions for its membership of some forty students. Under the able leadership of its moderator, Mr. Jerry Zank, and its officers; Dan Scapin, Tom Schufreider, and Chad Sain, a program existing of trips to Fort Sheridan, Orphans of the Storm, Lincoln Park Zoo, and other journeys to distant locations were enacted. The Bicycle Club Newsletter made its debut, containing club news and information along with other items of interest to strengthen club awareness of activities.

New ideas such as an overnight trip to Wisconsin were discussed and planned for a possible date this summer. All in all, it was a good year with few complaints. A program containing a larger variety of trips will be organized this year to please all members in the years to follow.

Many called them "Wierd", some called them "Crazy", but most called them the Loyola Academy Cheerleaders. A group consisting of five Marillac and five Regina "chics" and a gal from Mother Guerin High School teamed up with seven Loyola Seniors and two juniors to keep the crowds alive through thick or thin, win or lose, rain or shine, sometimes even rain and snow. When all seemed hopeless for our Ramblers, the sound of "FIRE UP" would rise from this little group and soon spread through the entire crowd. The gang was under the direction of Mrs. Nixon who took a group of students and molded them into a talented group of Cheerleaders. Through hours of hard work, she found more cheers and stunts for the squad to perform. She even proved to be a good school nurse by giving expert treatment to the only two injuries inflicted all year, a bloody nose and a twisted neck.

The girls also entertained the crowd during halftime with their "Pom Pom" routines that won them 3rd place in city competition.

We would like to thank Mrs. Nixon for her many years of dedicated labor to the Cheerleading Squds at Loyola, and we hope more will join in the effort of cheering our Ramblers on to victory.

"Coach" Jackimiec and Dave DeRose battle their wits

This season, by expanding the boundaries that confined them in previous years, Loyola's Chess Club, under the direction of Mr. Robert Pasquesi, brought about a broader scope of activities both within and outside of the confines of the Academy. In addition to hosting two tournaments and holding bi-weekly chess-playing get-togethers, the Club joined the North Shore High School Chess League. This membership resulted in team matches with neighboring institutions.

The members who comprised Loyola's interschool squad are Bob Campbell, Dave DeRose, Bob Ehrlich, Dave Erie, John Houlihan, Dan Kusswurm, Steve Polericki, and Tim Schnitzler. Bob Tatara won the Fall tournament.

Induction into the IHSA brought a new and difficult challenge for the 1974-1975 forensics team. In a league which emphasized numbers of contestants, smaller teams like Loyola's had little chance of winning major tournaments. This was a new hurdle for the 1974 National Catholic Forensic League third-place finishers to overcome, but nonetheless many speakers gave stellar performances.

Senior Pat Nugent was outstanding in Serious Dramatic Interpretation and captured first place in several tournaments, in addition to his first-place finish in the IHSA districts, in which Loyola placed fifth. Other district qualifiers included Dave DeRose in Prose Reading and John Long in Humorous Dramatic Interpretation. Steady performances were delivered by Michael Jekot, Vic Filippini, and Sophomore John Bowler.

For its first year in IHSA the students in forensics worked long and hard to make up for the lack of depth on the team, and for all the rewards were many.

In the autumn of 1973, the staff of "New Horizons" introduced the concept of the literary magazine to the Loyola Community. At the year's end, the first edition of the journal was produced. This academic year, the staff succeeded in publishing two superb issues of the magazine, improving greatly on the quality of the previous publication. Next year, guided by a new staff, "New Horizons" promises to continue to be a journal of superior quality. It was group of"grand designers' who led to the creation of the epoch of the literary journal, thus establishing a lasting tradition in Loyola Academy.

Ping-Pong Club

Donn Lauten paddles the ball

This year, under the moderation of Mr. Lleranna, the Ping-Pong Club was formed. Boasting some 80 members at the first meeting, this club is one of the largest at our school. The club sponsored three tournaments open to teachers as well as students.

Starting in the fall, the club set up a singles tournament. Chi-Sun won, soundly defeating Mr. Martens in the finals. Mr. Llerana finished third.

During the winter, the club set up a doubles tournament. Chi-Sun and D. Smith defeated Mr. Brennan and Mr. Martens in two of the most thrilling games by scores of 21-19 in both games. Mr. Llerana and M. Curry finished third.

In the spring, the club hosted a singles tournament. Next year looks to be a promising year with more tournaments and a more stable organization.

The Prep Review took on many new guises as it entered the 1974-75 school year. One of the major changes was that both the Prep Weekly and Review were entirely produced by the students and printed in the Loyola Print Shop. This allowed the paper to be more up-to-date with news items, but it also limited the newspaper's staff ability to use better graphics.

Although the paper's appearance fell somewhat short of the staff's expectations, the contents were greatly improved and the popularity of the paper increased. Numerous staff writers and regular features contributed to the Prep's success.

Much of the Prep's success can be attributed to the apper's Editorial Board which consisted of Frank Moschiano, Chris Perille, Chad Sain, Charles Saulsberry, and the Editors-in-Chief, Michael Daly and Jim Hillsman. Their job was to produce a newspaper that would be informative and appealing to all students.

The Rugby Club brought to Loyola its first state title -- two titles, in fact -- following successive victories in the IHSA-sanctioned tournament at New Trier West High School. Success was the combination of unified action during play and the respect the team members had for each other. Coaches Rich Clarke and Jack Knight joined their efforts to instill these qualities into their enthusiastic players.

Loyola has three Rugby teams, each with its own schedule. Both the Division A and Division B teams finished with no loss record; the Division C team lost only one game.

Outstanding contributors to the success of the A team were seniors Mark Ramirez, Dan Doyle, and John Pont and junior Mike Cerney.

Students from Loyola, Regina, and Marillac form the Christian Life Community, previsouly called the Sodality. With Rev. Paul Clifford, S.J., as their director, these students work in groups to fulfill their purpose: communicating God's love to others through social or apostolic work.

Each group consists of approximately eight students under the guidance of various moderators from Regina and Loyola. Meetings are held every Tuesday night after mass. The content of these meetings include wide-ranging topics, such as a discussion of values, personal difficulties, and faith, or to a greater understanding and interaction between members. An integral function of each group is social work. Members may also make retreats together.

Each group strives to be a vibrant, working community, maintains group identity by receiving support from one another, and feels a sense of group commitment. The number of students involved in the CLC and their fidelity in attendance reflect their enthusiasm and this sense of commitment. We all have enriched ourselves and are looking forward to the coming years in the CLC.

"Chadwick" and Mr. McGrath

The main emphasis of the student council this year was to get more people involved in activities around the school.

Activities this year started off with a car wash. Then the student council joined forces with the senior class to produce a great Homecoming weekend. Other activities included a coffee house, a very successful open house, and a new and exciting Bal Masque, thanks to the hard-working junior caucus. Also, because of the efforts fine intramural committee, the student council sponsored another fine intramural program.

The year's concert, although not as financially successful as previous concerts, provided some great entertainment.

Officers of this year's student council tried to be less impersonal and helped many people in a wide range of problems. A very special thanks goes to the officers for the work they did this year.

The officers of the student council would like to thank the representatives, with special appreciation to the intramural committee, the senior class, torch club officers, those who worked on Open House and Bal Masque, and all who helped in the various endeavors of the student council.

The Torch Club of Loyola Academy, founded in the year 1936, is one of the oldest organizations at Loyola Academy. Its purpose is to act as a service organization in the school and for the promotion of school spirit at the Academy. Throughout its long and proud history, the Torch Club sweater has been in evidence at such activities as football and basketball games, dramatic events, socials, college night, the RAMBLE, the annual graduation ceremonies, and many more. It is composed of approximately 60 members out of the 1650 Loyola Academy students. These men are elected into the Club by the members of their particular class and by members of the Torch Club.

The present moderators of the Torch Club are Edward F. Schurz and Mark Seeberg. The 1974-75 officers were: President, David Ford; Vice-President, Tim Kelly; Secretary, Jim Hillsman; Treasurer, Jim Brennan; Social Chairman, Jim Nugent.

Rich Haas (hard at work, as usual), Bill Sliwa, and Mr. Hires

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times. The worst because we lost to the University of California a most dedicated and sincere moderator, Father John P. Heim, S. J. The best because an ambitious and persevering replacement was found under the name of Robert "Nuncle Bob" Hires.

Constantly in competition with the antics of Prep staff and the noise of the continuous party in the teacher's lounge across the hall, Editors Bill Sliwa and Rick Haas were always on hand to keep each other in line. Chad Sain, Jon Trutter, and Chuck Saulsberry were a great help in obtaining and writing copies. Dan Stralka and Pete Dorsher were around to prepare for their future editorships next year. Chris Bonk and Tim Loftus (along with our most dedicated Fr. Legris) helped with the photography. Senior Tim Cavenaugh typed, and Steve Otter took on the hard tedious job of picture identification. Then there was Joe Wilczynski.

The long hours spent in compiling the YEAR 1975 eventually bring their own reward – the preservation of happy memories for all the students of Loyola Academy.

On Friday, October 11, the halls of Loyola Academy filled with a bleak and dismal atmosphere. Yet within this desert of gloom, there flourished, in the Loyola gymnasium, an oasis of musical excitement, for it was on this occasion that the Senior Class and the Student Council of Loyola presented the Homecoming Dance 1975 with its theme, "Midnight at the Oasis." Music for the dance was provided by SECOND WIND, and the elaborate decorations produced the exotic world of the Egyptian-type oasis in the Loyola gym.

The Homecoming Dance was but the beginning of a long and festive weekend of activities. On Saturday, Jim McNulty and Carol Lacy entertained a crowd of students at the Coffee House. A Sunrise Mass was held the following morning with the same two performers providing a musical accompaniment. The Sunday festivities were climaxed by a Float Parade from Harms Woods to Loyola. The weekend activities concluded with the Homecoming football against Gordan and the half-time float-judging contest, won by the Saugie Boys for their creative entry.

When the festivities were ended, it was clear that the momentum gained from Homecoming 1975 had established a forward drive within the Loyola student body which did not die out even after the final bell of the ultimate class had signaled the conclusion of the academic year.

The 1975 Bal Masque started a new trend for this mid-winter gathering. Incorporating the theme of the 50's with the atmosphere of 2001, the dance was dubbed "2051."

In accordance with the usual theme were the unusual decorations: a 110'-long tunnel, a Malt Shoppe, partitioned seating areas (for a cozy effect), and a lighting exhibit with blacklights and glitter balls. All this was topped off by an excellent performance of the band CATCH.

Bal Masque is always loads of fun and we hope more people in the future will take advantage of this mid-winter fete. Ask anyone who has experienced the B.M. and you'll certainly find out it's great.

Hey, it's Chuck Saulsberry and date!

The darkness was replaced by the dawn of a new season. The frigid atmosphere was displaced by a wave of warmth. The ground which had lain dormant was supplanted with the sprouting of Nature's flowers. Thus was the arrival of springtime, and with it came Loyola Academy's annual spring dance, the climax of Loyola's social activities the Tulip Trot.

Organized by the Torch Club, Tulip Trot was held on Friday evening, the second of May. At that time the Loyola gymnasium was filled with clowns, trapezes, balloons, elephants, popcorn, and acrobats--consistent with the theme of the dance, "the Big Top." The atmosphere of the dance was enlivened with the music provided by CHARIOT. So festive was the occasion that when the dance was concluded all those who had attended the Tulip Trot realized that spring has arrived.

Winner of the solo act was Marillac's Amy Dolan

John Kasper opens TalVue '75

Loyola's own C.C. John and Little Ram

On the evenings of February 14 and 15, Loyola Academy was host to the fourteenth annual Talent Review. Eight schools-Loyola, Marillac, Regina, Sacred Heart, St. Benedict, St. Patrick's, St. Scholastica, and Woodlands-were in competition for the Frank J. Hogan Award. Efforts of Father Laurence Reuter, working on his 20th Talvue, and chairman Tim McNulty made the show a success.

The opening act of the 1975 edition of Talvue involved 32 Loyola students in a spectacular tap-dancing feature. The music for the numbers was arranged by Mr. Kenneth Bartosz, and the dancers were directed by Mrs. LaVerne Lehman.

The other acts ranged from Loyola's Jim Spector and his masterful performance on the guitar to a blend of the African culture and the American heritage provided by the Holy Family "Afros" in their dance act.

When the performances of the Talent Review were completed, a group of judges, including the illustrious Frazier Thomas, presented awards to the winners of the individual contests: Amy Dolan of Marillac won the solo award; the small group was awarded to Diane Downes and Shirley Oshito of St. Scholastica; Marillac's Dance Troupe received the moderate-sized group award; first prize in the large group act was won by students from St. Benedict's; and, finally, the grand prize of the Hogan Award was presented to Cathy Lee of Regina for the best all-around act.

The 1974-1975 theatrical season opened at Loyola with Dalton Trumbo's THE BIGGEST THIEF IN TOWN on October 25, 26, and 27, directed by Viola Berwick, star of radio and theater. The comedy, set in an undertaking parlor, revolves around the struggling proprietor's theft of a body which he believes to be dead. When he finds out it is not, the plot comes alive. Mark McIntyre portrayed the undertaker, Bert Hutchino. Frank Moschiano appeared as Bert's professional sidekick, Dr. Jay Stewart; Jerry Murphy was Horton Page, the ambitious small town reporter; and Pat Nugent played the hilarious role of Sam Wilkins, the stewed druggist. Others in the cast included John Hurtenbach as Buddy, Peter Mohawk as old John Troybalt, Terry Halloran as Dr. Willow, Jim Brennan as Col. Rumby, and Mike Dudek and Dan Scapin as attendants. From Regina came Meg Kissinger as the proper Miss Tipten and Maureen McNulty as Laurie.

The success of THE BIGGEST THIEF IN TOWN was also due to the talents of Mr. Ed Meekin and Mr. Bill Norren on make-up and the many hard-working stage hands. THE BIGGEST THIEF IN TOWN truly opened the spectacular Fine Arts season with a bark.

Stalag 17, the second theatrical production, was directed by Mr. Robert Hires. It was the first time that a play of the war era had been attempted at Loyola and, judging by the response of the audience, the show was one of the most brilliant successes ever performed here.

Mr. Hires added many faces to the stage, such as Sam Betar (Sgt. Hoffman), George Mangan (the Spy), Jim Valenti (Sefton), Pat Cotter (Marko), and Mike Opelka (Schultz). These actors were supported by other equally outstanding actors and a dedicated crew.

Throughout the history of the modern world, a tension has persisted within the minds of men: the tension between the real and the ideal, that which is and that which ought to be, the confusion of this world and the next. The piece of literature which captured this tension most profoundly was Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra's DON QUIXOTE OF LA MANCHA. The most popular representation of the Cervantes' classic is MAN OF LA MANCHA, which was relived for five performances of the stage of Loyola Academy.

The best description of the Loyola production of MAN OF LA MANCHA can be summed up in the term PERFECTION. Instrumental in the achievement of this level of accomplishment was the persistent work of Fr. Larry Reuter. From the actors' performances to the set design, Loyola Academy's presentation of the spring musical was a grand finale of a spectacular dramatic season.

Open House

Jim McKerr tours the library with prospective students

On Friday, November 9, Loyola Academy held a special event, perhaps the most important occurrence of the academic year–the annual Open House. It was a time when the administration, faculty, and student body united to display the uniqueness of Loyola–both in curriculars and in extra-curriculars.

The corridors were filled with perhaps the largest number of prospective students from Chicago-area grammar schools and their parents ever to attend a Loyola Open House. They were welcomed by Loyola student-volunteers who ushered them on a tour of the building and the exhibits.

When the evening of Open House 1974 became the dawn of another day, a great number of prospective students and their parents had been given a glimpse into the diverse interests and pursuits of a student body which blends in the melting pot of Loyola Academy. This institution of secondary education has firmly established a unique tradition in the modern world upon the decorum of the founding Jesuit order of educators. It can be concluded that Open House served to display a small portion of this unique tradition.

Festival of the Arts

Delightful entertainment was provided by the Three Stooges

The third annual Festival of the Arts Week seemed even more effective than that of previous years. Designed to stimulate creative and artistic qualities in a student, the Festival was well-planned and successfully executed. From the lunchtime dramatics to the combined Loyola-Regina Spring Concert, students' enthusiasm expressed their satisfaction. The week closed with a spectacular art fair, displayed by John Geis and his students in the Quadrangle. Beginning with mass by Fr. Reuter, the afternoon's attendance spoke for the success of the Festival. We look to next year for a continuation of this academic offshoot to enrich students' comprehension of and appreciation for the fine arts.

"An innovative and highly profitable experience" is an accurate description of Loyola Academy's third annual Mini-Course Week. Attended also by the young ladies of Regina and held during the interim between semesters, mini-courses were designed to give students the opportunity to acquire knowledge in areas not provided in the traditional curriculum. The Intersession Week was aimed at providing a restful yet learning-inspiring atmosphere during the interlude of semesters, prompting a unified Loyola community.

The list of mini-courses was large in number and varied in content. Courses were conducted in arts and crafts, in academic courses, and in sports. Truly the goals of this five-day period have been reached, for Mini-Course provided a relaxed and instructive atmosphere which contributed to a unified Loyola Community.

Once again, through the combined efforts of Loyola and Regina, the Loyola chapel echoed with the sounds of the Rock Cantata. The awesome spectacle of the classy jazz band backed by a chorus of sixty students typified the jovial spirit of the upcoming Christmas holidays. The 1975 graduation was a special one, for this was the last graduation at Loyola Academy for the President, John H. Reinke, S. J., who is leaving to take up new duties at Loyola University. It was also the last time for Fr. Paul Clifford, who was honored on this occasion as the recipient of this year's President's Medal. Finally, of course, it was the last day at Loyola Academy for 363 seniors.

The Class of '75, outstanding for its spirit and sense of unity, will be missed around our halls, but we pray that what each one of us has learned here may be retained and spread into other people's lives.

The End

The YEAR 1975 is printed in offset lithography by Pischel Yearbooks of Marceline, Missouri. School photographer was Campus Studio of Aurora, Illinois. Body type is 10 point Century. Special thanks to Mr. Donner Kepler, Mr. John T. Connelly, and to the Administration and the faculty for their many helpful suggestions and thorough cooperation throughout the year. Very special thanks go to Fr. Gerasime Legris, S.J. and to Ron Kirsch, Sweet Jeanne Rogers, and to all the members of American Photograph Corporation of Hillside, Illinois who made this publication possible.
